Mt. Zion Church Starts Revival Meeting Sun.

The revival meeting begins at Mt. Zion, 10 miles out of Hamlin next Sunday morning, the 21st, and continues till the 4th of August. Our District Superintendent, Rev. John L. Knight, is our evangelist, and his wife pianist, and his son violinist. Miss Hallie Brannon of Perryton is choir director and her brother uses the violin.

We have a fine corps of workers and are very anxious that our friends and neighbors and the surrounding county hear these good people. We are sure that if you come once you will come again. From the signs of the times the time is short for the Christians to work, so let's lay aside everything and go in for a real old time revival.

Services through the week will be at ten in the morning and 8 in the evening. Come one, come all. We will look for you.

H. C. Cagle, Pastor

Miss Faye Hunter, a student in Parsons Beauty School in Abilene, spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hunter. She had as her guest, Miss Alice Stillwater, of Little Rock, Ark., who is also a student in the Parsons Beauty School.

*Senator Collie Issues A Statement to District

MY FRIENDS:

The few, brief words that I am about to say will no doubt seem unexciting in comparison to the tidings of war, which all of us have been following for days and weeks over the radio and through the press.

Nevertheless, the time is approaching when the primary election will be held—Saturday, July 27th—and in such times as these that now confront Texas and our nation, it is more than ever important that we give thought to preserving our American form of government, because the United States stands almost alone in the world today insofar as being a nation where the people rule and where every man has the right to express his thoughts and to worship God in accordance with the dictates of his own conscience.

Thrice, you, the citizens of the 24th Senatorial District, have honored me with the office of State Senator, and I come before you as a candidate for re-election.

If you again see fit to bestow this office upon me, I pledge the utmost co-operation in a program of national preparedness and defense. This is a subject of vital importance to Texas because we have the longest coast line of any State in the Union and because we have the longest international border of any State, and if an ambitious dictator should decide to launch an attack upon the United States, he might see fit to strike through Texas first. Our great oil fields, furnishing 40 per cent of all the petroleum now being produced in the United States; our sulphur and our other great resources would make Texas a rich prize. We must be prepared to protect our soil.

Let me emphasize that I am for DEFENSE. I am not in favor of sending our boys to die on a foreign battlefield. But what I want to see is a navy second to none, a well-trained army as a nucleus of our land defense, and a swarm of thousands of airplanes so that an enemy will think long before he decides to try to invade our country. In such an event, the people of Texas—with the glorious traditions of the Alamo and San Jacinto and of the Argonne Forest as inspirations—will do their share to keep Old Glory floating above a free soil and a brave people.

I pledge my utmost co-operation against the enemies of America and American freedom, both from without and from within. We must have no Trojan horse; we must prevent any "fifth column" from betraying our land and our liberty.

On the other hand, we must not go to an extreme and persecute anyone or hurt any loyal citizen through idle gossip. The good, common sense and the inherent spirit of fair play and good sportsmanship of the people of Texas and of the United States can be counted on, I am sure, at all times.

I invite you to consider my record. I have voted consistently in the interest of this Senatorial District and have tried, at all times, to reflect your views because you are the rulers and I your representative in the State Senate. My record shows

Hamlin F.F.A. Boys Win State Terracing Contest for 1939-'40

At the State F. F. A. Convention held in Houston July 11 through 13 the Hamlin Chapter won the State Terracing contest for the year of 1939-40. This means that the Hamlin Chapter will receive a terracing machine from the Brown Tool Company of Breckenridge, Texas.

Through the untiring efforts of the members of the Hamlin F. F. A. Chapter to serve their community, they have been repaid by being declared the best terracers in the state. Last year the members of the Chapter established close to eighty five miles of terrace lines. These lines were established on over 20 farms of the Hamlin trade territory. All of these lines established were either successfully terraced or contoured. None of them were run in vain.

This work was done under the direction of R. H. Campbell, vocational agriculture teacher of the Hamlin High school. Both Mr. Campbell and the Hamlin Chapter are to be congratulated.

that I am the friend of the old age pensions and the social security program; that I have worked and voted in behalf of our schools, of better roads, and to foster the oil industry, which is to be found in many of our counties, and to benefit the stock-raiser and the farmer.

I do not say that I haven't made mistakes, but I have always been in there, trying and doing my best, and I appreciate the fact that none of the gentlemen in this race has attacked my record.

Now as never before it seems that the need is for steadiness and experience in such an office as State Senator. This is not a time for experimentation; for trying out some new man, in my judgment. If your present Senator has demonstrated by actual achievement that I represent the people and their welfare, would you want to dispense with his services for this district in the affairs of state?

Your kindness to me in the past is deeply appreciated, and I hope you will cast your vote for me on July 27.

Neinda Church Having 51st Anniversary and Home-Coming Sunday

This Sunday promises to be a great day for the people of the Neinda Baptist church, according to the pastor, Rev. George Beavers.

Fifty-one years ago, or to be exact it was July 21, 1889 that this church was organized. At that time there were thirteen charter members and today there are but two known living. One of them is a Mr. Bristow, of Rotan, unable to be present because of his feebleness, and the other is a Mrs. Hill. Her place of residence is unknown, but the last heard from she was an invalid.

The Neinda Baptist church was organized by Dr. A. H. Johnston, who was a resident of Anson, both a medical man and a minister.

Rev. Beavers says all former pastors and members have been notified and urged to be present for the day.

The program for the great day starts at 10:00 A. M. with a thirty minute period of devotional prayer service, conducted by the Sunday School Supt., Charlie Gregory.

Twenty minutes will be used by Rev. J. W. Cundiff, a former pastor, on "The Church and Her Mission." Followed by song and prayer.

A brief history of the Neinda Church will be given by Jim P. Johnson, a deacon and former clerk of the church. This will be followed by a period of song service.

At 11:15: Sermon by Rev. George Beavers, whose subject will be "The Origin and Perpetuity of the Church." This is going to be an interesting subject and covers a lot of ground.

12:00 Noon—An old fashioned basket dinner will be served.

2:00 P. M.—Old time songs and devotional service, led by Joe Hubbard, especially for older people, and will be followed by a talk by Elder C. E. Leslie of Hermleigh, Texas, whose subject will be "Pioneering of Baptist."

Perhaps one of the interesting features of the day will be by the older pioneers of the church, in a short talks and experiences meeting.

The Neinda church represents one of the pioneer churches, and one may expect the services to be typical of that open, free and genuine kind of worship that the older people of this generation has seen in other days. Rev. Beavers extends a cordial invitation to everybody to come and enjoy the day with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Smith and little daughter, Benita Irene, have returned from a visit with relatives in Weatherford and other nearby towns. They were accompanied home by a friend, Miss Dixie Ballow who spent a few days here as their guest.

Mrs. C. L. Ferguson and daughters, Jean and Juandell, of Kingsville, have returned to their home after a visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Revell. Miss Valeta Crow returned home with them.

In an effort to see the 50,000 voters in the other eleven counties in the 24th Senatorial District, I have been spending the greater part of my time in those counties—

A New Store For Hamlin, Malouf Dry Goods Opening Fri.

For the past several weeks, a young business man by the name of George G. Malouf and his wife have been just as busy as bees getting things ready for the formal opening of their new dry goods store in the Johnson Building, two doors south of the Waggoner Drug Store. This Friday is the day and to announce this big opening, Mr. Malouf and a special advertising man, Mr. C. D. Schmidt, of Dallas, are sending out several thousands of big information circulars, inviting the whole Hamlin trade territory to visit the new store, especially on opening days, and get acquainted.

Mr. Malouf has lived a number of years in Knox City where he conducted a dry goods business there, and from reports following him and his family, it is quite clear Hamlin is getting a fine family.

We quote a paragraph from a letter from H. E. Wall, formerly a business man in Hamlin, and now of Knox City. He says, "Mr. Malouf and I worked together here in Knox City for about one and one-half years. I do not hesitate to say that he is strictly honest, reliable, courteous, and conscientious in all his business dealings. A host of his friends here join me in expressing their regret at his moving from Knox City. . . . In conclusion, I felt that since Mr. Malouf was soon to open a modern dry goods store in your midst, it would be only fair to him to recommend him to the good people of Hamlin and vicinity."

—H. E. WALL.

On entering Mr. Malouf's store one at once feels a welcome and a freedom in the atmosphere. It is well here to note that Mr. Malouf has acquired the services of Mrs. Carl Greenway, well known in this vicinity as a good saleslady, and also Howard Nail, to be on his sales force. Mr. Nail is also experienced in handling dry goods.

Naturally all good citizens wish any legitimate enterprise much success in Hamlin. It is a compliment to have a first class business open in Hamlin. It means much to this community for one to make good on any legitimate line. It does no place good to have a failure and thereafter a knock on the commun-

Texas Corp. Will Pay Salary To Employees In Military Camps

Leaves of absence with pay for a period of up to three months will be given to employees of The Texas Corp. and subsidiary companies who attend training camps of the National Guard, Naval Militia, Organized Reserve of the U. S. Naval Reserve, and the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve, Texaco's local office announced today.

Employees ordered to training camp by military authorities will receive full pay for the duration of the encampment, if it is not more than three months, less their military pay and added allowance for quarters and rations. For periods longer than three months, leaves without pay will be granted. When camp attendance is voluntary, as it is for members of the Officers Reserve Corps, Citizens Military Training Camps, and Reserve Officers Training Corps, the same provisions will apply, but the employee must first obtain the company's permission to attend.

Absence for any of these services will not affect the employees' regular vacations or seniority rights. Moreover, provisions of Texaco's accident and sick benefit plan, permanent and total disability plan, and group life insurance and pension plan will apply during the absence with pay as though the employee were in active service with the company. It was pointed out that the present scheme does not cover actual military service, but only training periods.

James E. Ferguson Pours It On Heavy In Corsicana Speech

Corsicana, July 16—Speaking to the largest audience which has so far greeted any candidate here in the current political campaign, the former Governor James E. Ferguson charged that Governor O'Daniel's failure to accomplish anything was due to the fact that he does not know how to run the governor's office.

In a fiery address delivered in the interest of the candidacy of his wife, Miriam A. Ferguson, for governor, Ferguson declared that the people of Texas realized three weeks after the election that they had made a mistake and predicted this error would be corrected by the election of Mrs. Ferguson in the coming primaries.

"A professional politician has got more sense than a professional ignoramus," the ex-governor shouted amid cheers in discussing O'Daniel's oft-repeated threat to rid the State of professional politicians.

"O'Daniel promised to pay the old-age pensions in full but he didn't do it because he didn't know how. A pension plan that don't pay off is just a fraud."

A canvass of the views of the large crowd and of a cross section of political sentiment in Corsicana made preceding the rally brought forth the prediction from Ferguson supporters that O'Daniel had lost heavily in this section and that Mrs. Ferguson would undeniably face him in the run-off.

A LITTLE BIT ABOUT

AND A LITTLE BIT OF

Americans are noted for their response to the call of mercy, yet we have a law that prohibits our ships from going to England and returning with ship loads of innocent children who seek safety from Hitler's bombs.

Americans readily respond to the Red Cross. Hitler says Germany does not need Red Cross help, but he does not hinder the delivery of Red Cross gifts to such countries as France and Belgium . . . there is a reason . . . he takes what he can from his victims so his own people will not suffer. Will the American "soft hearts" keep sending help to Hitler's victims in order that Hitler can continue to rob their innocent children of foods and medicines? Every pound of food and every ounce of medicine carried to the victims of Germany means that much more for the Germans.

It may be good policy to keep our ships from going for English children, but it does not sound like the American spirit to shun the task.

Thousands of American homes would be glad to furnish a haven for the little ones of England till their parents are either killed or able to receive their children in safety. The American people have a great responsibility . . . just how well we meet that duty will be seen and felt . . . to shirk it may make our task harder in the future.

To be a Christian and uphold its divine principles also carry with it many extra responsibilities. To preach Liberty and champion Freedom involves a lot of education and action. Americans can not impress Chinese by continuing to deal liberally with a nation that is beating their life out. Scrap iron, cotton and oil means dollars to American pockets when sold to Japan to deal death and disaster to the Chinese — will these Japanese dollars mean bad luck?

What American is it that can not take pride in the determination of America to build and maintain the greatest navy the world has ever seen? A fleet of 35 battleships, 88 cruisers, 20 aircraft carriers, 378 destroyers and 180 submarines will comprise the United States' answer to the growing strength of totalitarian aggression in Europe and Asia. It will take about seven years for our navy program to be carried out, then we will have 701 warships in active service, compared to 369,

Years ago this paper said: "Very well, if other great nations of the world do not want to quit building big navies, then let's see who can do the biggest job of it."

Most of us in this nation do not believe our country would harm or take anything from even the smallest country in the world, and would rather lend to it, sympathize with it, and even give to it than to see misery and destruction, hence there is no danger in the size and efficiency of our navy and air equipment.

This week one of the greatest American political conventions is in progress. Do you like it? Is it not wonderful that every individual in that convention feels perfectly safe in saying what he pleases about anybody, high or low, critically, or complimentary, and not expect to be sent to a concentration camp?

Americans heard over their radios what was said and done. Americans realized it was democracy in action, and feared no evil. They heard the dynamic expressions of old statesmen as well as the young. Every American must realize that with enough unity of purpose in this nation almost any task or problem can be accomplished.

Let Americans realize that Mr. Roosevelt is not the only great American, but that he IS IN the greatest position of any head of government in the world today and with the loyalty, characteristic of true Americans he will be enabled to carry on and advance the principles of Christianity and freedom the whole world over, and make despots tremble. Whatever it takes to do the job Americans have it. It was not his sincere wish to be President a third time, but it is the desire of a vast majority of Americans that this nation continue men of experience in every position of national trust.

Each day let all of us realize it is a great fortune to be an American.

About Mosquitos In Town Of Hamlin

Much has been said about mosquitoes in Hamlin.

Many mosquitoes ARE in Hamlin, and have seemed to increase from year to year.

There are reasons for many mosquitoes in Hamlin: Drainage is almost impossible; water remains in the thousands of feet of ditches alongside of the streets, especially in the early spring time, and according to authority, mosquito eggs remain through the fall and winter and hatch out in the first warm weather of spring. Add to this the hundreds of upground cisterns in Hamlin, some full, some with a mere few inches, all of which warm up early in the spring to mosquito hatching degrees, and you have the chief source of mosquito origin in Hamlin. Then there are a few places along side of the railroads where leaks from water mains keep up a fine place for new mosquitoes all year.

Get this: Mosquitoes do not hatch in weeds. They take refuge or shelter in weeds and damp places after they emerge from water somewhere.

Why are they so much worse in dry hot weather than in damp, rainy weather? The answer to that question is simple. When the ditches are dried up, and the sun gets hot, they seek cool damp places around houses, garages, toilets, flowers, just anywhere to hide and keep cool. They can't stand very hot weather. Then when night comes they are ready to start getting their blood meal from your arms and legs, and, O Boy, they do get it.

You ask what can be done, or what is being done?

Here is the answer. In Hamlin the mosquito control efforts started on June 14 . . . just about 40 days after the 1940 mosquitoes began hatching. You ask why the start was so late? No definite assurances of labor pay were received till about June 10th. Men can not work without some pay, you know.

Since June 14, up to July 6, a plan of action has been followed. The Chamber of Commerce furnished a pressure spray, two five gallon cans and a pair of rubber shoes. A man was employed and is directed where and how to spray kerosene on possible mosquito hatching places. The city pays a man so much per hour or day for his work. The direction of the work, and the gathering of the kerosene is done gratis, and all service stations or oil firms who have been solicited have contributed as much as 5 gallons of kerosene, each with the sale of 20 gallons at wholesale price of 6 cents per gallon. Individuals who have been asked to contribute 30 cents to pay for 5 gallons of kerosene have to a person, man or woman, done it gladly. No one is asked to give more than 5 gallons or the price of same.

Already 175 gallons of kerosene have been used, and the amount to be used during the summer and till late in the fall will depend on the rain and amount of water found in certain places.

You ask why then so many mosquitoes NOW? The mosquito work has revealed that millions had hatched before the work got started. All mosquitoes that get away from the places where hatched are hard to kill and the females, the kind that bite, live many months and will deposit eggs wherever there is water or moisture. But none can hatch and grow without water. So it must be clear that grown mosquitoes must be fought and endured while we try to keep the tribe from increasing. The work will count if kept up long enough.

Every cistern in Hamlin, where the owner would permit kerosene spray, has been treated and will be re-treated every two or three weeks through the summer. Mosquitoes around your house may come from your neighbor's cistern. You cannot stop up a cistern so tight that a mosquito can not get into it, unless you use the charcoal filtration plan. Since we have soft water, then why have cisterns anyway? But remember even an inch of water in a cistern is more effective for mosquitoes than several feet. Get the water out or keep it well oiled.

A BAD SITUATION

The above explanation of the mosquito fight in Hamlin is bad enough to be published to the wide world. BUT . . .

Oftentimes a newspaper must reveal things to the community that are not complimentary or conducive to getting more good citizens. It is unpleasant to tell many undesirable

Lets 300,000 Mosquitoes Bite Him To Find Perfect Insect Repellent

Young Research Worker
on University Staff
Real "Iron" Man

Philip Granett

WHILE other people try to keep away from mosquitoes during the summer months, Philip Granett, young "iron" man at Rutgers University, goes to a great deal of trouble to get them to bite him. He has endured more than 300,000 bites to help make it possible for other folks to escape insect annoyance.

Granett is one of a group of scientists at Rutgers who, under a grant from the National Carbon Company, are studying insect reactions to various chemicals. They have been working on this one problem for five years. As a result, they have already succeeded in making a repellent lotion that not only prevents mosquitoes from biting but keeps them at a distance.

Granett's job in this research has been that of a human guinea pig. He has tried out on himself the hundreds of chemical combinations produced by the laboratory staff to learn which solution would work best.

His method has been to take a sample of the chemical to be tested, stand in a mosquito bog, roll up sleeves and trousers, and apply a measured amount of the repellent to one arm and one leg. The other arm and leg have been left unprotected. Then the number of bites received on the untreated parts of his body were counted.

Bites were counted until Granett got one on the arm or leg having the repellent coating. As soon as that happened, he noted the time that had elapsed since the test began, and the experiment was over. His purpose, of course, was to find a chemical combination that would extend the protection time as long as possible.

things about one's town. However, there comes a time that the general public MUST realize, hence we tell you of a "BAD SITUATION." Not so bad but that it can be remedied.

Wednesday the Herald Editor was invited by Hamlin's pioneer ginners, Thad Harden to accompany him to inspect a "bad situation".

We went to what is known as "Hamlin's sewer disposal pit." This thing is a pitiful excuse for a sewer system, to say the best of it. It begins to empty its contaminating contents into California Creek about four blocks east of Central Avenue, east of the F. & M. Bank. Mr. Harden and Ye Editor went to see if we could determine why a billion of mosquitos are eating on the people of South Hamlin (and in other parts of town as well). We found a billion times a billion answers to that often spoken of question. California Creek was followed for a mile in its winding ooze, messy, stinking channel and yet we did not find the end of that slimy, working conglomeration of off-cast water from the sewer mains of Hamlin, that carry stuff that mosquitos thrive upon almost 365 days of the year.

Few Hamlin citizens have ever seen this situation and can not realize the unhealthy situation that prevails, especially from early spring till late fall. There it is, a strip of bubbling water, varying in width from a few feet to fifty feet in one place, winding in sharp curves, in places overshadowed with thick trees so the sun never shines down to help purify; dank damp banks with weeds and grass waist high and piles of drift reeking with living things. Following that messy channel look closely at the water surfaces and see the almost unbroken mass of slimy covering, on which rest billions upon billions of full grown mosquitos, feeding, reproducing, laying eggs, and depositing them for still more and more millions of poisoning insects. Anywhere, dip a long handle dipper in and look! The water is absolutely black with the developing wiggletails into mosquitos. We are conservative when we say "A Bad Situation." It is worse than bad. The Herald has a linotype machine that has many figures to use, and we are not stretching it a bit to say that if it was possible to count the mosquitos and wiggletails in that "Sewer Creek" we would not have enough figures to show how many billions there are . . . that is a fact, folks.

Don't get excited. Not all of those mosquitos are coming over into Hamlin. If even one out of each thousand did come over into town there would be so many that life would be worse here than in any swamp in Mexico.

What to do? It is more than a one-man job. It is going to take more than "30 cents", the amount individuals have so far contributed to buy kerosene. It is going to take axes, rakes, hoes, and labor to cut back the brush and weeds to let the sunshine in; labor to burn drift, kerosene, crude oils, vigilance, continuous watch, to make the situation half decent. A new and efficient disposal plant is needed. As it is, a dozen handicaps will present themselves. Hamlin does not own the creek and but a little of the lands, hence property rights must enter into any thing that may be done. Better do something.

BAPTIST CHURCH

The increase in Sunday School and church attendance Sunday was encouraging. It looks like we are determined to outdo old man Summer Slump, and we are glad. We were glad to welcome Charles Rogers into our membership Sunday night. Total new members for July have reached fourteen.

The Vacation Bible school is outdoing our fondest expectations. We have averaged 142 in attendance the first three days. Workers and pupils alike are thrilled at the prospects. The school will continue thru-out next week, closing Friday with a big picnic in the City Park. On Thursday, at 7:00 P. M., we will have our Commencement exercises. Every pupil who has attended at least five days and completed the work assigned him, will be given a diploma. At this service, the handwork and notebooks will be displayed. The public is urged to attend this service.

A short demonstration of the worship service carried out in the school will be given Sunday morning at 10:50. A section will be reserved for the boys and girls, and the pastor's message will be prepared with them in mind as well as older people. Let's run the building over Sunday morning! You will be interested in the service.

Training Union is growing some. Come at 7:15 and help us make this work a success. Preaching at 8:15, and Fellowship for the Young People on the lawn following the evening service.

Our Brotherhood will meet Monday night at 7:45. Each man is requested to bring a covered dish (A dish with something to eat in it). We will follow the example of the ladies and have a covered dish luncheon. We are planning a surprise entertainment feature to precede our regular program. An out-of-town speaker will be present.

H. E. EAST, Pastor

Baptist Brotherhood

Meets Monday Nite

On Monday night, July 22, the newly organized Brotherhood of the Baptist Church will have its third monthly meeting. At 7:45 supper will be served, and every man is requested to bring one dish of his favorite food. We are taking chances on having a variety.

During the supper hour, a surprise entertainment feature will be presented. Following this, the regular monthly program will be conducted. This will consist of special music arranged by Clyde Smith, and an out of town speaker to be secured. We wish to urge men of Hamlin to attend this meeting. You will enjoy the fellowship, and receive good from the program arranged.

Vacation Bible School Proving Big Success

The Vacation Bible School at the First Baptist Church, the first ever conducted by this church, is going forward beyond the fondest expectation. The school began last Monday morning at 8:00 with 130 in attendance. Attendance has increased since then, and after Wednesday's session, records reveal an average of 142 for the first three days.

The school will continue through Friday, July 26. On this day the school will close out with a picnic in the city park. On Thursday night, at 7:00, the commencement exercises will be held. Handwork, notebook work, etc., will be on display. The public is urged to be present. The program will be completed by 8:00.

Boys and girls who attend five days and complete the work outlined will receive a diploma next Thursday night. It is hoped that many more boys and girls will avail themselves of this opportunity. Miss Bobbie Joe Cox of Tuscola is the principal, and she is anxious to enroll more pupils.

METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. John W. Hendrix, Pastor

It is most encouraging how the Sunday School is holding up this hot weather. It meets each morning at 9:45 and with each session offers you a cordial invitation to share it with us.

MORNING WORSHIP is 10:50 and runs one hour—one hour after it begins! Nothing within reach is being left off to make this an enjoyable occasion. It invites personal worship and craves to have each feel the heart warming devotion. It abounds in good fellowship—"Have fellowship one with another." The choir is remaining in session, at rehearsals and at the service. The subject of the sermon is, "Little Foxes That Gnaw The Vines."

EVENING WORSHIP comes on at 8:15—also is out one hour after it starts. That is, the church invites you to just two hours of public worship in seven days. Is that unreasonable? The subject of the sermon is, "Man Lost In A Zoo!" That is awful to be thus lost, but this has to do with an element far worse than what animals might do. We hereby date you up to consult with us about this question next Sunday evening!

LEAGUES, each of them, meet at 7:30, each in its place. The youth of our land sorely needs such an hour, a hour of separate devotion and treatment of its own questions. This gives that privilege. It is yours. No pastor could fail to appreciate the attendance of the young people at the hours of public worship; no, not for one moment. But we crave to be further helpful by offering this above period of devotion.

The Herald anywhere, 1 yr. $1.00.

Father: "My son, I won't have you constantly at the bottom of the class as you are."

Aged Seven (bored): "Can't see it matters, myself, Pa. They teach the same things at both ends."

"Build-Up" for Women Helps Avoid Distress

Do you suffer periodically from headaches, nervousness, irritability, cramp-like pain?

If so, here's good news! These may be symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition, often helped by CARDUI.

CARDUI usually increases appetite and the flow of gastric juice; so aids digestion and helps build up strength, energy, physical resistance. Result for many is less periodic distress. Or you may find this also helps ease your periodic discomfort: Take CARDUI a few days before and during "the time." 50 years of use and popularity invite your confidence in CARDUI.

Judge—Rastus, do you realize that by leaving your wife you are a deserter?

POULTRY FACTS

(By L. W. Bramblett)

Hamlin Cotton Oil Mill

FEEDING FOR FULL PRODUCTION

Growing pullets must be kept on a good feeding program during July and August, if they are expected to come into heavy production by September 1st. A plentiful supply of both grains and mash should be kept before them at all times. This method permits the birds themselves to choose which ever they need the most for their best development. They should have plenty of green foods or alfalfa hay cooled overnight in water. The idea of forcing birds for heavy fall production, when eggs can be sold for a good profit, is becoming more and more popular.

It is a well established fact, that unless a flock lays heavily during September, October, November and December, the year's poultry business will end up in the red.

Barometer Of Age

In her newspaper column, Eleanor Clavage discusses women as follows:

When a girl is 18, her friends tell her: "My, but you look very grown up and mature!" At 25 they say: "You still look like a kid to me." At 30, the graceful thing to say seems to be: "You don't seem to grow one bit older." And at 35, she hears, "It's remarkable the way you keep your youth."

But at 40 the tune changes a little. Then her friends begin telling her: "That hat makes you look ten years younger." And she knows she's ready for the discard when they vary that formula by declaring that in her new fall outfit she looks positively twenty years younger!

But possibly the acid test of growing old is this: When you meet an interesting and attractive man who pays you extravagant compliments and asks to see you again—and you don't rush right out and buy a new hat.

Many Communities Helped By the Federal Government

Congressman Clyde L. Garrett issued the following statement this week:

"In view of the fact that I am receiving many requests from my constituents concerning the amount of federal funds which have been allotted our District, through the PWA and WPA programs, during the 3 1-2 years that I have been in Congress, I am pleased to supply this information. Although I do not feel that the amount of funds which a Member of Congress secures for expenditures in his District should be a yardstick by which his services may be measured, I do realize that this is a matter of extreme interest and importance to his constituents, and is also information which the people are entitled to have. It seems to me that a better way to determine the character of services rendered by a Member of Congress is by the attitude which he has taken towards the more important things confronting our Nation, among them being our National Defense, the grave unemployment and agricultural situation, including Rural Rehabilitation, Farm Tenancy, Soil and Water Conservation, Rural Electrification and Social Security. However, I submit to my constituents of Jones County the following information:

"Since January 1, 1937, through WPA and PWA alone, $7,432,207.84 has been allotted to our District. $592,410.30 of this amount has been allotted to Jones County as follows: "ROADS: $50,462.57; Sewing rooms, $104,232.77; "AVOCA: Independent School District, improving school facilities, $1,010.07. "ANSON: Improvement on Municipal Park $30,041.98; Recreation- al park $12,867.52; Improvements on

HON. CLYDE L. GARRETT

High school facilities $6,374.65; Sewer system improvements, $1,353. "HAMLIN: Construction of school garage $652.42; Improving city streets $10,964.84; Improving recreational park $19,890.18; School lunches $230.94; PWA loan and grant for city lake $234,000.00.

Concerning BILL ARMSTRONG

Bill Armstrong, a candidate for County Treasurer of Jones County, was a student in Tahoka High School in 1936-37, during which time I was Superintendent of Tahoka City Schools. Even though handicapped physically to a certain extent, Bill was a good and hard-working student. His grades were above the average; his penmanship, average. His keen, alert mind and pleasing personality won the admiration of teachers and students alike.

I consider Bill Armstrong thoroughly qualified in every respect to perform the duties of the office to which he aspires. These words in his behalf are written at my own suggestion.

COTTON FLEA HOPPER

Damage done by the flea hopper can be determined only by a careful and close examination of the cotton plants. The fruit that is killed by the flea hopper ranges in size from a square that measures about one-quarter of an inch across, down to buds that are about the size of a pin head. Flea hoppers have been more or less numerous in this section for a number of years, and have been responsible for a considerable loss in yield over a long period of time. Flea hoppers can easily be controlled by the use of a dusting machine and a special sulphur preparation (Sulphur in a very fine form).

Opera Star Gives Slumber Hints

Summertime sleeping presents the problem of keeping cool and yet adequately covered. Jean Dickenson, lovely soprano star of the Metropolitan Opera Company, has discovered that using two sheets for covering is the most satisfactory solution. Thus three sheets are the only elements in your bed-making. Two top sheets are light and cool, but furnish enough protection for the sleeper against the drafts and chills which often lead to summer colds. Miss Dickenson chooses the second covering sheet in color—mist-green or marbled-pink—giving the effect of covers, protecting the white sheets, and adding an attractive color-note to her room. The first covering sheet is one of the revolutionary new ones with beauty-hems woven right into the body of the sheet in a border of handsome damask-like stripes instead of the usual folded and stitched hems which only make for extra weight.

And for keeping cool and collected during the daytime chore of making the beds, Miss Dickenson suggested permanent projecting size-index tabs which, even when the sheets are folded on the shelf, enable you to find exactly the size you need without your having to unfold them first. Double tape selvages are another desirable feature for they provide reinforcement where the sheet is exposed to the greatest strain.

THIS WEEK'S DARDEN-O-GRAM

The Analysis of the news in last week's Herald was fine and right to the point. More power to Bowen Pope. We need more editors who will shoot straight from the shoulder er and warn the people of the dangers of dictators. There is too much pussy-footing; there is always some are afraid to state facts on account, it might not be good politics. Our country needs more men like Walter Winchell, men who state facts, and men who fear no boogers. The talk about professional politicians is getting stale. The dictionary says a politician is a person experienced in the art of government. Maybe we need more politicians and fewer banjo pickers.

The W. P. A. and C. C. C., etc., are fine things, but wouldn't it have been better to have compulsory military training all these years? At least our country would have been prepared to meet any emergency.

Drastic times calls for drastic measures.—Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Children Grateful For Kindness, Sympathy

It is with sincere gratitude and appreciation that we try to express our feelings in the sad hours of death. So many were thoughtful and kind to our mother and so sympathetic to all of us that we fail to find words to speak our thanks. We thank you for the floral offerings and every word and act.
